Background:

On July 18, 1990, The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) published a final rule implementing the revision to section 104(d) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended (the Act). This rule specifies the replacement requirements that are triggered when Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds are used either for the demolition of a low/moderate-income (L/M) dwelling unit, or for the conversion of a L/M dwelling unit to another use. Under the one-for-one replacement rule, the grantee must provide replacement dwelling units whenever L/M dwelling units are demolished or converted to another use. The intent of this rule is to ensure the maintenance of the L/M housing stock.
